Make It Happen NOW!

Take the first step to become fully live, vibrant, peaceful and attuned to the Divine within and without.

Leave behind that what no longer serves. Awaken to the power to live fully in the NOW and enjoying each and every day and experience as part of the inward search to living your DREAM life and destiny.

I am living my life in harmony with nature, animals, balancing the present with the past and future to fully shine my light and become all I can be!

Soul Healing

Our soul journey is set in place before we incarnate. Learn what is changes are needed to become all you can be.

Exemplary Lifestyle

What have you noticed about your life? What is working? What do you love? What do you want more of? What needs to be eliminated? How do you connect to spiritual guidance? What are your lessons? Define what "heaven on earth looks like for you" Affiliated with:

Steps along the Journey

Who are you?

Trust your inner and outer knowing. Be within the flow of life. As you reflect inward and "notice", take time to clear the dust, restructure broken lines and fill holes that allow for the seepage of energy and loss of power.

Theoretical Underpinnings

We are energetic beings shaped by our consciousness and flow through the ebb and flow of the chakra energy and chi throughout our body from the hara, core star, biofield within and without.

Interventions

Condor feather blessing from Peruvian heritage.

Getting Started

What to Include?

You are unique – there is no other like you. Define your special integrated approach to health and healing and share it with the world to experience new and effective ways to be joyful, loving, fulfilled and abundantly happy with all the resources you need and more ...

“Define your Life by the essence of who you are, what you like to do and are good at.”

What You Do Best?

A CAM Specialist creates and demonstrates excellence in combining their life's work presenting it as a unified whole.

- Answering the call to heal.
- Assessing, identifying and clearing blocks to your path.
- Document a self-care plan for you and your clients
- Create and articulate a CAM specialty

Documentation

Journey as a Healer

Keep a journal on your process and reflective experience. Following your path, telling your story. Walking your path and opening of the flower within.
