Supporting Instructors — USA

Bob Brame has been facilitating Holotropic Breathwork sessions since 1993 and is certified by the founding group GTT – Grof Transpersonal Training.

Holotropic Breathwork is a natural, safe technique to expand awareness and access extraordinary states of consciousness.

Bob has taught meditation, yoga, stress management and massage therapy. He is a licensed massage therapist, an approved provider for continuing education for massage therapists, and a certified consultant/instructor of Touch for Health.

His love of nature is displayed at his retreat in Mebane, North Carolina where he lives and hosts workshops in Holotropic Breathwork – the search for wholeness. www.holoquest.org

Robin Curtis, RN has taught and practiced holistic principles with "Wellness in Health Care" and combines Healing Touch in her nursing and incorporates a range of transformative and curative healings in her practice.

She has traveled with Mary Jo to Australia, New Zealand and Peru. Robin is a cancer survivor and was diagnosed with a brain tumor in 2003 that went undiagnosed for 25 years. In addition, she had total left hemisphere displacement and kinking of intercranial pressure. The medical health care system did not anticipate her recovery. She has had 3 Near Death Experiences on the operating table. Robin continues her path as an advanced healer helping others heal. Witness her remarkable return to health.
